Poem

Every morning I forget how it is.
I watch the smoke mount
In great strides above the city,
I belong to no one.

Then, I remember my shoes,
How I have to put them on,
How bending over to tie them up
I will look into the earth.

Charles Simic

Sense of Place in Wrotham and Hoveon.

Wherries harvested through centuries,
Reeds harvested for Hurdle,
Ostra begin to return to natural water,
Xanthic plants colour the landscape,
Lepus and Buteo habitat in the reeds,
Folter can walk on banking or well-travelled waterways,
Management utilising tourism for happiness of the Brook.

Housing parallel with nature,
Opportunities for sport, relaxation and accumulation,
Variation of walk to plentifully distributed,
Eutrophication plugging the Brooks,
Town centre buzzing with life,
Orange tinted yards glade surrounding,
National Park, full of vigour.

Life
in lively town
at life
