NSS Activities

Murti Sankalana In Ganpati Festival

Date: 17/09/2024

Murti Sankalan is a traditional cultural activity that can be incorporated into the programs run by the National Service Scheme (NSS). The NSS is a youth-based organization under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, with a focus on community service, social welfare, and nation-building. The process typically includes organizing workshops, crafting idols, and their installation, often combined with community celebrations. This activity fosters a sense of responsibility, leadership, and personal growth in volunteers, while also contributing to social and environmental causes. In conclusion, Murti Sankalan under NSS activities is a valuable way to preserve cultural traditions, promote sustainable practices, and build community connections, all while providing NSS volunteers with practical skills and social awareness.

Awareness Of Culture Celebration Of Gurupurnima Date: 05/09/2024

Guru Purnima is a day dedicated to honoring our teachers, mentors, and spiritual guides who enlighten us with knowledge, wisdom, and guidance. In college, celebrating this day is a great way to show respect and gratitude to professors, faculty members, and others who play a role in shaping our academic and personal growth. By celebrating Guru Purnima in college, students and faculty can strengthen their bond, express mutual respect, and reflect on the importance of education in their lives. It's a meaningful way to show gratitude for those who impart knowledge and wisdom.

Guru Purnima is a day to honor teachers and mentors for their guidance and wisdom. In a college setting, it can be celebrated with Ceremonial Activities, Gratitude to Teachers, Cultural Program, Interactive Sessions, Refreshments, Social Media Tribute. This celebration fosters a sense of respect and appreciation for the educational journey and the role of mentors in shaping lives.
